The Wish Fish

Opil doesn't eat fish. In a desperate attempt to stop him from wolfing down junk food, his mother serves him a special dish: The wish fish. But Opil no longer believes in fairytale and takes it as a joke: "I hope some mutant aliens come and take away all the fish on the planet". The following morning, the troops of evil Saturon arrive aboard their spacecraft and suck out all the oceans, spreading chaos and threatening the entire world. With the help of Captain Mackarel, his daughter Marina and Lady Rappfish of the White Duchy, he is to embark on a crazy adventure during which he will have to do his utmost to recover the sea and save the planet.
